WHO ARE WE?

Centro de Formación del Profesorado en Idiomas is a modern public-funded institution for in-service teacher training and education advisory in Castilla y León, which is a vast region in Spain (the largest in Europe).

This centre deals with all the in-service training at regional level. The region has a well established CLIL programme extended to 369 schools in the present school year 2010/2011.

C/Albéniz 1
47006 Valladolid

T. 00 34 983226141
Fax: 0034 983457213
e-mail:47700024@educa.jcyl.es
A professional team of pedagogical advisers is in charge of research and documentation on the different languages implemented in Castilla y León schools.

This centre is responsible for the publication of the “Regional and Provincial Training Annual Planning for in-service Teachers in Castilla y León” which is of compulsory implementation in all training centres.

WHAT WE DO

- Advise on CLIL methodology
- Advise on language innovative methodology
- Collaboration with the Universities in Castilla y León on in-service teacher courses.
- Organize in-service training in Languages.
- Research and advise on education practices and methodology
- Advise on bilingual schools training plans.
- Advise on CLIL in-service teachers training plans.

FRAMEWORK DOCUMENTS

- Regional teacher training plan “Red XXI” on ICT, web 2.0.
- Reference document at regional level for Professional development for foreign language in-service teachers.
- Reference document about teachers’ professional competences. Created in collaboration with the Centro Superior de Formación del Profesorado, CSFP.
- Reference document about in-service training evaluation standards.
- Reference document about in-service training needs standards.
- Reference document about promotion of training plans implemented in the education centre.
- Innovation awards in education centres (Innovative Education Projects).

C/Álbeniz 1
47006 Valladolid
Spain

T. 00 34 983226141
Fax: 0034 983457213
e-mail:47700024@educa.jcyl.es