

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ADVANCED A

Justification

Linguistic aspects in a language require constant updating. Language Teachers need to improve the English language skills for their personal development and for the proper use in the classroom as their high level of English will result in a higher quality of their teaching practice. That's the reason why we consider essential to design and offer this activity taking into account a high previous level among participants.

Objectives

- 1.- To develop specific language resources for precise and natural communication in English
- 2.- To understand and communicate properly in specific communication situations
- 3.- To get a high oral level.

Contents

- 1.- Descriptive language regarding various topics
- 2.- Advanced oral skills
- 3.- Authentic material for didactic purposes.

Competences

Communicative and linguistic competence in foreign language education.

Methodology

The methodology will be mainly practical promoting the active participation of the teachers attending the course. They will be exposed to different topics in real communication contexts.

Teachers

They will be native experts of high prestige in Foreign Language teaching in every province.

